CALL FOR NOMINATIONS: INTEGRITY AWARD AND CORPORATE LEADERSHIP AWARD

The Coalition for Integrity is pleased to announce a call for nominations for its 2018 Integrity Award and Corporate Leadership Award.

The Integrity Award is designed to recognize contributions by an individual or organization to the advancement of the fight against corruption and to the promotion of transparency and accountability within business, government and civil society in the United States or abroad. The previous recipients of the Integrity Award are United States Senator John McCain, former U.S. Attorney Preet Bharara, former President Jimmy Carter, Sir James D. Wolfensohn, former President of The World Bank Group, former U.S. Senator Richard G. Lugar, former U.S. Secretary of State Hillary Rodham Clinton and former Chairman of the Federal Reserve Paul Volcker.

The Coalition for Integrity Corporate Leadership Award is designed to recognize leadership-level contributions by a company to corporate anti-corruption compliance, transparency, business ethics and integrity, including internal innovations and contributions in shaping collective action initiatives with other industry members. Previous recipients of the Corporate Leadership Award are Parsons Corporation, Bechtel Group, Inc., General Electric, The Coca-Cola Company, Fluor Corporation, Raytheon Company and PepsiCo.

The awards will be presented at the Coalition for Integrity's 2018 Integrity Award Dinner, the signature fundraising and anti-corruption awareness raising event of the Coalition for Integrity.

To be eligible, the individual or organization, in addition to having a reputation for integrity, must have a demonstrated and sustained track record of actions and ideas relating to the promotion of ethics and integrity, anti-corruption programs and/or corporate social responsibility in the U.S and/or internationally.

Nominations may be submitted by a person(s) or organizations(s). To be eligible for consideration, a nomination form with details of the nominee, the person or organization submitting the nomination, and the reasons for the nomination must be submitted. The deadline for submission of nominations is June 30, 2018.

Integrity Awards Guidelines

The Coalition for Integrity's Integrity Award is designed to recognize contributions by individuals and/or organizations to the advancement of the fight against corruption and to the promotion of transparency and accountability within business, government and civil society. While nominees should be of outstanding personal character, the award focuses on the impact, scope and objectives of the recipient's actions and/or initiatives.

The Coalition for Integrity Corporate Leadership Award is designed to recognize leadership-level contributions by a company to corporate anti-corruption compliance, transparency, business ethics and integrity and/or corporate social responsibility, including internal innovations and contributions in shaping collective action initiatives with other industry members.

Nominations for both awards will be accepted until June 30, 2018.

Eligibility

- The nominee may be a U.S. or non-U.S. individual or organization.
- The nominee must have a demonstrated and sustained track record of actions and ideas relating to the promotion of anti-corruption programs, ethics and/or corporate social responsibility.

Ineligible Nominees

The following categories of nominees will NOT be considered for the Integrity Award:

- Individuals or organizations of questionable integrity or goals.
- Members of the Coalition for Integrity Board of Directors, Advisory Council or Policy Advisory Board, the Awards Committee and salaried staff of the Coalition for Integrity.
- Individuals or organizations that submit self-nominations.

Nomination Procedure

Nominations will be accepted until June 30, 2018. Previous candidates can be re-nominated, and the Awards Committee may take it upon itself to make nominations as well. For a nomination to be eligible for consideration, it must include the following:

- Completed nomination form, including a statement making the case for the nomination (maximum of 750 words) explaining why the nominee(s) is deserving of the Integrity Award.
- Supporting documentation in the form of press clippings, audio or video files, if available and pertinent.

Incomplete nomination forms cannot be considered by the Awards Committee. False or deceptive nominations or acts may render a nominee ineligible. Nominations should be submitted via email to mwilliams@coalitionforintegrity.org or mailed to:
